08/28/2013	81	ORDER denying 50 Motion to Modify Conditions of Release as to BINIAM TSEGAI (1). The sole basis for the instant motion is the fact that the defendant's father has now returned to Maine, making it possible for the defendant to reside with him. However, as the government argues, the defendant tendered two third-party custodians at the June 10, 2013, detention hearing, and I did not find them inadequate. Rather, I ordered the defendant detained for reasons independent of those potential third-party custodians. See ECF No. 28. Another acceptable third-party custodian will not alter my rationale, and, therefore, the legal standard for reopening the hearing under 18 U.S.C. Section 3142(f)(2) has not been met. 11/05/2014	170	MOTION to Continue Sentencing by HAMADI HASSAN Responses due by 11/26/2014. (RIOUX, LUKE) (Entered: 11/05/2014)
11/05/2014	171	ORDER denying 170 Motion to Continue as to HAMADI HASSAN (2). This case has been pending since July 10, 2013. There were numerous motions to continue the trial. Defendant Hassan entered a guilty plea on May 21, 2014. Sentencing was initially set for September 9, 2014, but was continued. The Defendant requests that sentencing be continued to a date in February to allow post-conviction review of a state aggravated assault conviction. As was discussed in the pre-sentence conference, even if the Defendant is successful in having his state conviction set aside, it would not affect the guideline calculations. The sentencing date in this case affects other cases. The Government objects to the continuance. The court finds that it is not in the best interest of justice to continue the sentencing and denies the motion. By JUDGE NANCY TORRESEN. (TORRESEN, NANCY) (Entered: 11/05/2014)
